Privacy Policy

Your right to privacy is very important. We recognize that when you choose to provide us with information about yourself, you trust us to act in a responsible manner. We believe this information should only be used to help us provide you better service. That's why we have put a policy in place to protect your personal information. Below is a summary of our policy.

Information Collection and Use

Air Parts & Supply Company (APSCO) collects personally identifiable information from our Users at several different points on our Web site, including when a User registers. We will not sell, share, or rent this information to others in any way.

Registration

In order to use this Web site fully, you must first complete the registration form. During registration, you are required to give your contact information (such as name and e-mail address). This information is used to contact you about the services and products on our site for which you have expressed an interest. It is optional for you to provide some of the requested information, such as demographic information, but encourage it so we can provide a more personalized experience for you on our site.

As a Registered User you must agree to the Terms and Conditions regarding the use of our Web site.

Log Files

We use IP addresses to analyze trends, administer the site, track User's movement, and gather broad demographic information for aggregate use. IP addresses are not linked to personally identifiable information.

Sharing Information

We will not share or sell our subscriber database information to third parties for marketing purposes.

Links

This Web site contains links to other sites. Please be aware that APSCO is not responsible for the privacy practices of other sites. We encourage you to be aware when you leave our site to read the privacy statements of every Web site that collects personally identifiable information. This Privacy Statement applies solely to information collected by this Web site.

Security

We take every precaution to protect your information. When you submit sensitive information via our web site, your information is protected both online and off-line.

All of your information is restricted in our offices. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (for example, a customer service representative) are granted access to personally identifiable information. Our information databases are kept in a secure location with limited access to internal staff.

Site and Service Updates

We may also send you site and service announcement updates. We may communicate with you about requested services and issues relating to your account via e-mail.

Notification of Changes

If we decide to change our Privacy Statement, we will post the changes on our site so you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under which circumstances, if any, we disclose it. If at any point we decide to use personally identifiable information in a manner different from that stated at the time it was collected, we will notify you by way of an e-mail. You have a choice as to whether or not we use your information in this different manner. We will use information in accordance with the Privacy Statement under which the information was collected.

APSCO welcomes comments and questions on this policy. We are dedicated to protecting your personal information, and will make every reasonable effort to keep that information secure. Due to the rapidly evolving technologies on the Internet, we may occasionally update this statement. All revisions will be posted to this site.

For questions regarding this statement, please email us here.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide you with quality parts and service!
